

STOP

Girls' Programme

The Stop Girls' Programme addresses the issue of girls who are engaging in concerning or harmful sexual behaviour and provides assessment and intervention services.

The Stop Girls' Programme recognises that girls have unique treatment needs which need to be met in a targeted, gender-specific manner by professional, qualified staff who receive specific training for this client group.

How to Refer

Referrals are accepted from Child, Youth and Family, schools, health and community professionals, counsellors and the police.

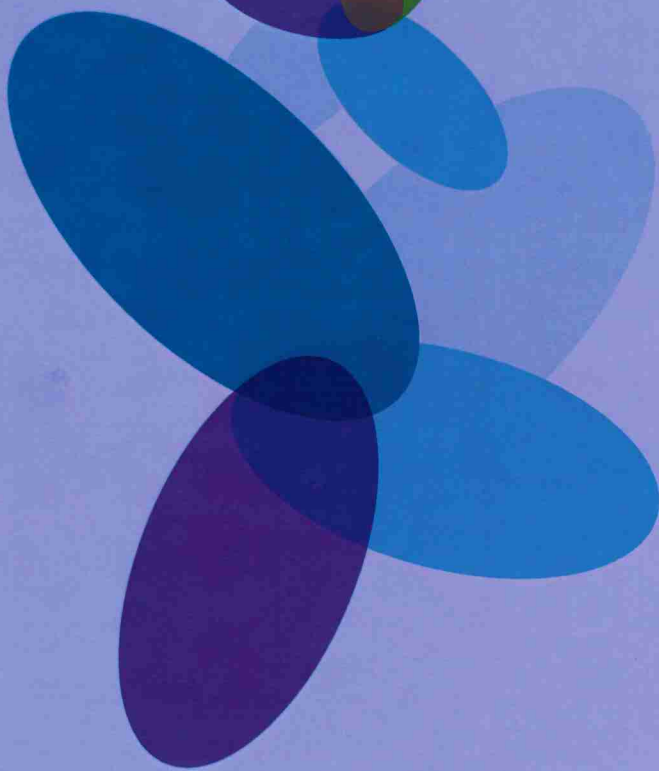

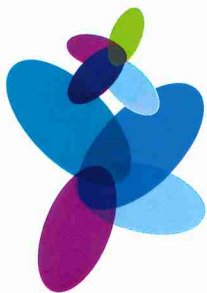

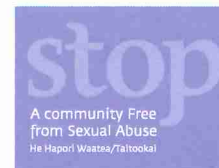

Enquiries

Enquiries around referral suitability can be made by telephone or email. Please contact the Christchurch office, (contact details below) and you will be directed to the appropriate person.
